Cool Spring Ultimate Mattress - Firm

The 'Cool Spring Ultimate Mattress' is the combination of the best products currently available. The soft feel top layer of 'Revo foam' works in harmony with the high- density memory foam second layer, producing incredible support and improved airflow by 28%, compared to conventional visco-elastic mattresses, reducing the likelihood overheating. The support of the top two layers is enhanced with the additional use of 'Nano Springs' adjusting to your body, with the base layer of 'Reflex Foam®' which maintains the body's correct posture. You will feel the benefit of a night sleep like no other.
